Summary: This is a challenge to anyone out there wanting to write a side story to Requiem of a Jedi, the first book of the Tri-Verse Saga. Rules and information inside.

Tri-Verse Side Story Challenge

I'm sorry for not posting anything new for the Tri-Verse Saga. I'm still trying to get through my case of writer's bloc. I have a few ideas on how I want the next chapter of ROAJ to go, but there's something I need to get out first.

I had plans on having General Grievous and Delta Squad fight the Flood on Hoth in ROAJ, but after some thinking, I've decided not to do this. Instead, I'll be focusing on introducing and exploring two new characters that will appear throughout the Tri-Verse Saga: Melissa Keyes, the twin sister of the late Commander Miranda Keyes and Captain of the _Autumn_-class Heavy Cruiser _UNSC Pillar of Autumn II_; and Desmond "Boot" Miles, an ODST Private stationed on the _UNSC Infinity_ and the newest member of the Helljumper squad led by Gunnery Sergeant Edward Buck. Before you ask, yes, Desmond is a reference to the Assassin's Creed games. Not only will I be exploring these two people, I'll also focus on the relationship that will eventually form between Raptor Scott Shepard and Ahsoka Tano as ROAJ progresses.

As such, the plan on having General Grievous and Delta Squad in the story is now discontinuing. BUT, that doesn't mean that the idea is dead. I want to have this as a side story, but the thing is, I won't be writing it. Instead, I'm setting this idea up for adoption. So, if you want to write this as a side story to ROAJ, PM me and I'll give the idea to you.

Here are the rules if you do indeed receive the rights to make this story:

The story has to take place immediately after both Ahsoka and the Forerunner artifact disappear, in 21 BBY, two years before Revenge of the Sith.

The story has to take place on Hoth, in a Republic research center/Forerunner Complex buried underneath the surface.

The story has to include General Grievous and Delta Squad. You can include a Jedi in the story as well. I prefer either Anakin or Obi-Wan, but I'll let you decide which Jedi you want in the story.

The story has to include the Flood, as they will be the main enemy both the Republic and the Separatists will encounter underneath Hoth.

The story has to include the Flood Juggernaut. For information on how they fight, look it up on Halopedia and read Mass Effect: New Origins V2.

The story has to include both the Sentinels and a Rampant Forerunner Monitor. I'll let you name the Monitor.

Those are my terms. Remember to PM me, and if you hear back from me, that means you get to write the story. I will not accept requests from reviewers.

Now I'm gonna go back to writing. The next chapter to ROAJ, "Alpha and OMEGA", will be up soon. Until next time, ScottyD117 out!
